Welcome to the Pavelló de la República!
The Pavelló de la República Library joined what is now the UB’s Learning and Research Resources Centre (CRAI) in 1996. It has since grown to become one of the world’s leading archival libraries on subjects such as the Second Spanish Republic, the Spanish Civil War, exile, the Franco regime and Spain’s transition to democracy.

In addition, the library has important materials on the Soviet Bloc and on the international political history of the twentieth century, particularly the Second World War.

Monographs and pamphlets
The collection contains approximately 105,000 titles.

Periodicals
More than 10,000 titles cover the end of the nineteenth century to the present, particularly the Second Spanish Republic, the Spanish Civil War and exile. The collection also contains significant underground press materials from the Franco period and the transition to democracy. These include the publications of political parties, trade unions and residents’ associations.
