

TEATRE BRITÀNIC CONTEMPORANI: NOVES TENDÈNCIES

Oral Presentations

Student's name:
Topic:

Introduction
	Excellent	Very good	Good	Fail
The aims and objectives are clearly spelt out
The topic is introduced in an engaging manner
A general outline of the presentation is provided
Body
	Excellent	Very good	Good	Fail
The presentation reflects a sound understanding of the topic
It is well organized
Key ideas are duly highlighted
Good English is spoken
A clear, fluid language is used
The delivery is smooth (no repetitions, hesitations, etc.)
The delivery is effective: it captures the audience's attention (clear pronunciation, adequate changes of tone and rhythm, adequate use of pauses, etc.)

The slides are adequately designed (visual components, no overload of information, etc.)
Closure
	Excellent	Very good	Good	Fail
The key ideas are synthesised
It is made clear that the aims and objectives have been achieved				