

The Good Place

“Everything Is Fine” - S0101

Florence Nightingale

- English social reformer and statistician, and the founder of modern nursing.
- Serving as a manager and trainer of nurses during the Crimean War (1853-1856), she organised care for wounded soldiers. She gave nursing a favourable reputation and became an icon of Victorian culture, especially in the persona of "The Lady with the Lamp" making rounds of wounded soldiers at night.

Florence Nightingale

- Her social reforms included improving healthcare for all sections of British society, helping to abolish prostitution laws that were harsh for women, and expanding the acceptable forms of female participation in the workforce.
- Prodigious and versatile writer. Concerned with spreading medical knowledge, some of her tracts were written in simple English so that they could easily be understood by those with poor literary skills.
- Pioneer in the use of infographics, effectively using graphical presentations of statistical data.
- She also wrote on religion and mysticism.
