It has 616 reading points and is equipped with in-room computers and laptops, a Wi-Fi network, five study rooms (three for students and two for teaching and research staff), one work room for teachers, one seminar room, photocopy machines and a scanner (both for teaching and research staff), 8,205 metres of shelf space, 266 metres of storage space and a book drop.

Access to the Library is not restricted, but users do need to show their UB card or another supporting document to be able to take out books or use one of the other services.

SERVICES

You can borrow the documents listed in the catalogue as available. On the shelves, the books excluded from loan are marked with a red dot. Loans can be renewed at the loan desk, by phone or online at My account.

You can arrange to take out documents from any CRAI library and return them to any other, depositing the books either at the library loan desk or book drop.
