INTRODUCTION

The Learning and Research Resources Centre (CRAI) offers PhD students and researchers in the UB community a comprehensive range of resources and services.

RESOURCES

► CRAI UB Cercabib: new search engine. From "My Account", you can view and renew your loans, reserve documents, consult your reading history and save search profiles.

<http://cercabib.ub.edu/iii/encore/?lang=eng>

Electronic and paper resources searcher providing a single point of access to various resources such as books, databases, portals, catalogues, journals and portal listings. Allows you to search information through a single interface.

Access the electronic information resources subscribed to by the Library through a proxy server from any computer.

<http://crai.ub.edu/en/crai-services/resources-online/proxy>

► Mendeley: manage your references and extract bibliography lists in different citation styles.

<http://crai.ub.edu/en/crai-services/citations-reference/mendeley>

► TOC from Dialnet: subscribe to notifications and alerts and access other more advanced options offered by the Dialnet portal. To register at <http://dialnet.unirioja.es/servlet/alta>, enter your institutional mail and select the UB.

<http://dialnet.unirioja.es/>

► Scientific production: e-Dipòsits UB. Search the UB Digital Repository and other institutional repositories to which the UB contributes, coordinated by CESA and CSUC.

User training

► User training:

— Face-to-face training: User Training's web page offers a range of training sessions on the services and information resources provided by the CRAI.

<http://crai.ub.edu/en/crai-services/user-training>

— Self-access training: consult the range of self-access training materials devised by CRAI staff on the User Training's web page. Learning support materials (videos, tutorials and quick usage guides) are located in the UB Digital Repository in the collection Aprenentatge en l'ús de serveis i recursos d'informació: tutorials i guies (CRAI-UB).
